

October 04, 2025: On an Important Previous Title - The Ninth Gate

As I have uncovered this information, we have found numerous movie plots that, metaphorically, coincide with our real-world experience under Elon Musk and Donald Trump's attempt to pair with evil.

This film prominently stands out as one of those that is just 'too real' to ignore. This is a Freemason plot to 'raise the devil' for their own use as a 'Trojan Horse.'

Dean Corso (D.C., Dustin Chris), a New York City rare book dealer, is hired by wealthy collector Boris Balkan (Donald Trump). Balkan has acquired a copy of The Nine Gates of the Kingdom of Shadows (Bible Inverted), a book by 17th-century author Aristide de Torchia said to be able to summon the Devil. Torchia is alleged to have written the book in collaboration with the Devil, and only three copies survived when he and his works were burned for heresy. Balkan believes only one of the three is authentic and wants Corso to inspect the other two to determine which one. During his travels, Corso comes into contact with a mysterious woman ("The Girl") who appears to be following him (Elon Musk).
